

The City of Chichester Local Buildings List

Bungalow
Mount Lane
Chichester
West Sussex
PO19 3EX

Additional Information

- Designed by Powell & Moya – architects of the Skylon for the Festival of Britain and Chichester Festival Theatre.
- Built for local cleric in 1949, it is the surviving one of a pair.
- From what can be seen this building looks largely unaltered.
- A potentially important building for the future that would provide a rare example in Chichester of a modernist house situated in a historic location.

